PRIVACY STATEMENT

The Richmond Golf Club is subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988. The personal information provided by you on this form/application and attached documents will be used to process your membership application. Failure to provide all of the requested information may result in your application being rejected. You have a right to access and correct any of your personal information that the Club holds about you.

The Club does not usually disclose your personal information to any other organization or person unless there is a legal requirement to do so. The Club may disclose your information to third parties that provide services under contract to the Club. These contracts require the third party to keep your personal information confidential and secure.

Your personal information, including information about you obtained as a result of you placing your membership card in a gaming or other club machine (not ATMs) , may be used by the Club for marketing purposes to improve our services and to provide you with the latest information about those services and any new related services and promotions.

Members with Golf Australia Handicaps please note – That in making application for membership of the club you acknowledge and accept that you will be subject to the Golf Australia handicapping system and your handicap may be reviewed in the absolute discretion of the board of directors on the basis of any cards returned in any competition.

By making application to the club you also expressly acknowledge and agree that you will have no right to make representations to the handicapper before any decision is made to review your handicap and that there shall be no appeal whatsoever from any decision of the board of directors in relation to a review of your handicap.

Do you wish to receive marketing material and information about our promotions and services?
